

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredients entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are paying for and that the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better agent is used both for extracting and preserving the medicinal principles used in them, viz., pure tripe-refined glycerine. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and anti-ferment, nutritive and soothing demulcent.

Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign remedy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption in its advanced stages, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken.

Thought He Had Slipped Into a Snow.

Brown Gosh—Thick fish thin fish time ever knew snow to be hot!—Illustrated Bits.

HER NAME WAS ALICE HIS NAME WAS JIM

She Was Fat and He Was Slim; the Fates Were Unkind to Her and Him

In the hollow of an old tree which they chopped down in a field near Richfield, N. J., yesterday workmen found two letters. The first was in a woman's hand. It read:

Dear Jim—I got your letter all right the day after it was left here—our little postoffice—but it is only now that I have had a chance to leave a reply. I think you meant what you said, although at times I have believed that you were untrue. I have been watching since your letter came, and had a long wait before the opportunity arrived for me to slip out with a reply. I want to meet you some night—say next Thursday—and we will both go away together. I will be all ready, and if you are not on hand and the letter is gone I will be convinced that you don't want me. Then I'll go away myself, and you'll never again hear from me. Good-bye. Alice.

This was dated Wednesday, June 10, 1881. The other letter, written in a man's hand, was dated ten days later. It read thus:

Dear Alice—I have waited so long for a reply that I have begun to think that you have gone back on me. I have come to the tree many times, and looked in vain for an answer. Night and day I have thought of you, wondering if it could be possible that you had forsaken me. I have heard all about the other fellow, but cannot make myself believe that you care for him. I will wait five more days. Then if I do not hear from you I will be convinced that I am not wanted. After that I will leave you alone to enjoy the happiness which you may find with him. I'll go far away from here and try to forget. Jim.

There was a small opening in the tree about seven feet from the ground. From this opening the hollow, bored out by squirrels, ran clear to the ground. The woodchoppers believe that the missives fell or were dragged clear to the ground after they had been deposited in the "postoffice."

Alice and Jim were probably in the habit of leaving letters in the aperture, which could be taken out with the hand, until the squirrels had bored from the bottom and reached the point where the letters lay soon after the girl left her message there. Both letters were crumpled and eaten away at the edges, giving rise to the belief that they were probably dragged down into the hollow of the trunk by the squirrels.

SCIENTIFIC SPANKING

Consists in punishment only when a child is actually bad. Some mothers think that all crying is badness, it's not. When your baby cries, look for pins or some external cause, if you can't find them give the baby White's Cream Vermifuge as the chances are it is suffering from worms which keep it hungry and cross all the time. Pleasant to take—sure in its action. Price 25 cents. Sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

EXAMINATION OF EVELYN

Was Less Severe Yesterday than Day Before—She Held Up Well

New York, Jan. 22.—When the Thaw trial opened yesterday District Attorney Jerome resumed the cross-examination of Evelyn Thaw. He took up her European trip with Thaw in 1904, and her manner was somewhat less aggressive. Mrs. Thaw seemed rather sullen and answered Jerome's questions curtly. She told of showing Thaw, while in Paris, fourteen letters from Stanford White subsequent to events which followed their meeting. She said she did not know where the letters are now unless they were in a lawyer's office. The witness declared that she wrote White from Bologna. Jerome produced the photograph of the famous Hummel affidavit which alleged cruel treatment from Thaw and which Evelyn Thaw says she signed without knowing the contents. She declared that she did not tell Hummel the things set forth in the affidavit or anything like them. Jerome then asked the witness if Thaw had ever beaten her and received a negative answer. She also denied that she told White that Thaw had beaten her.

ALL THE SOLDIERS

WANT THE CANTEEN

Washington, Jan. 22.—In his annual report issued yesterday, General J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff, allays all doubts of his attitude towards the army canteen.

He says: "Reports show that the whole army is in favor of the canteen. When the canteen was in operation there were fewer desertions, less disease and less alcoholism than now."
